

CODE OF HUMAN CONDUCT FOR UNIVERSAL AFFIRMATION

Safdar Hasan Siddiqi

(This code of Conduct was unanimously approved in a conference held in Bangkok by Christian Council of Asia on 7th September, 1998 wherein seven South-Asian countries were represented)

We will look up to each other as fellow human beings having equal rights.

- We will promote pro-existence and will renounce discrimination on the basis of color, nationality, race, language, religion, gender or any other kind of bias.
- We will seek and promote knowledge, truth and wisdom, and work for building a humane society.
- We will endeavor to raise the level of literacy, educational standards and moral values in order to promote genuine democratic polity and vibrant culture.
- We will strive to establish an efficient socio-economic system that would prevent exploitation of the masses, and improve their standard of living and state of happiness.
- We will reject fascism, and all kinds of conduct aimed at forcing people to think and act according to the whims and dictates of others, and will advocate rational dialogue for settling differences.
- We recognize the need to develop human fraternity, banish wars and secure peace at the global level. The inherent human faculties of creativity, love and pursuance of beauty, and the productive potential of the human race need to be employed in harmony with and for the protection of nature and environment.

- We consider consumerism (wasteful expenditure on luxurious living) as harmful for positive progression in human relationships. We seek to live frugally and spend our savings for the betterment of society.
